MEETING AGENDA

6:00 pm: Updates on current exhibitions and related public programming

Heather Ferrell gave a brief update on the gallery's public programming series 'Artist at Work'. Wylie Sofia Garcia was the first artist to participate in this program. An update on the evening's success and dates of upcoming exhibition-related programming were shared with committee.

6:05 pm: Curatorial discussion: BCA Spring exhibition Ready. Fire! Aim., Summer exhibitions, Of Land & Local 2017

Heather Ferrell introduced and discussed upcoming BCA Center exhibitions for spring, summer, and fall of 2017. BCA Exhibition Committee attendees were given a progress update on Spring show, Ready. Fire! Aim. and introduced to potential exhibiting artists for BCA's main floor gallery, the Roth Gallery, and the Vermont Metro Gallery. The group offered feedback from time to time and provided suggestions for contemporary artists who make project-based work for Of Land & Local.

6:50 pm: Discuss the gallery's role in engaging the community through art and programming

- Group discussion about engagement in the community. Artists who work in social practice were discussed as were potential ways to bring in new community members into the BCA Center.

7:20 pm: Decide on next meeting date; discuss new committee members

- Next meeting TBD. Used the last ten minutes for networking and idea sharing.
